A NEW-MADE MOUND

In the Beautiful Cataraqui Now Marks the Resting Place of the Great Canadian Statesman.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 11.—Beneath a new-made mound in Cataraqui cemetery, in a beautiful little vale, with its velvet fields and peaceful farm houses, and wave-washed by the waters of the blue Ontario, were placed today all that is earthly of Sir John MacDonald. With almost royal honors and amid the mourning of a nation the body of the dead premier was borne to its last resting place.

On all the public buildings and on many business houses the national colors floated at half mast. Down Princess street the principal buildings were draped in festoons of black bunting and in many of the windows were portraits of the late premier, draped in black.

The city building, in which the remains lay in state, was magnificently draped. An immense throng of people passed into the hall, viewed the remains and then emerged from the rear.

An enormous crowd of people poured into the city from the surrounding country this morning. An early train from Ottawa brought the members of the senate and house of commons, the governor-general and staff, and others, who were to take part in the funeral.

The cortege moved at noon. The various civic and military bodies quickly fell into line and, to the booming of a cannon from Fort Henry and the solemn tolling of city and church bells, the march to the grave began. The column consisted of civic societies, police, cavalry and artillery, hearse, with body guard of cadets, mourners, governor-general and staff, army and navy, provincial governors, bishops, cabinet, judiciary, the legislature, provincial assemblies, consuls, deputy ministers, deputations from other cities and citizens generally.

The cortege passed along Ontario street to Princess street, and up the thoroughfare to Cataraqui cemetery, a distance of over three miles.

Arriving at the cemetery the remains were taken in charge by the Masonic fraternity and interred with Masonic honors. The place where the remains were placed is a terrace on a hillside.

The dead premier was laid beneath the plain Scotch granite shaft on which the single word "MacDonald" stands out in relief. The lot contains five other graves; those of Sir John's parents and sister and his wife and child. A more beautiful spot for the repose of the remains of the illustrious dead could hardly have been chosen. In front is the Ontario, to the left the spires of Kingston, Sir John's native place, pierce the air. All around is a typical picture of Canadian life. The day was also observed as a day of mourning throughout the dominion and during the process of the funeral, bells were tolled in every city and town of the country. A movement is taking definite shape of a national monument to the dead statesman to be erected by popular subscription.

Her husband was a gallant soldier in the war of 1812, for which she now draws a pension of $12 a month.

The London Disgrace Leads to a General Investment.

A SECOND JOHNSTOWN.

A Water Spout Bursts and Causes Great Destruction to Life and Property.

GAINESVILLE, Texas, June 11.—News was received here yesterday from Frazier, Green county, of the destruction to life and property caused by a terrible water spout, accompanied by a wind storm, which visited that town and vicinity Tuesday night. Rain had been falling several days and Tuesday night at 11 o'clock a water spout burst and in a few minutes the streets were covered three feet deep in water, presenting the appearance of a raging torrent. All the business houses were flooded. Men secured buggies and with great difficulty succeeded in hauling the women and children to places of safety. Three persons were drowned in the Turkey creek. They were: Pomp Pondexter, a young farmer, his sister and a young man named Albright. The dwelling house of Captain Phillips was lifted from its foundation and carred nearly a mile, when it was hurled against a tree and wrecked. Phillips and one of his daughters caught some floating debris and were washed ashore half a mile from where the house was demolished. Mrs. Phillips and her babe caught on to a plank and were washed into the branch of a large tree, where they remained till next day, when they were rescued by parties in a boat. A large number of houses were blown down and many others washed away. Dug-outs were filled with water and hundreds of people rendered homeless, and all their live stock, crops, and other property swept away. A young farmer named Burdsen, while trying to reach the shore in a ferry boat, was thrown from the boat and drowned.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

The Prince of Wales Scored for His Disreputable Practices.

LONDON, June 11.—The Christian World, a religious weekly paper, representing all denominations of Protestants, says of the Prince of Wales in connection with the Baccarat scandle: "The throne rests upon the foundation of public opinion only. A few more scandals like that of Tranby Croft will destroy the foundation, and Edward VIII would never be crowned." The British Weekly says: "The revelations are enough to sober up the strongest supporters of the monarchy." The correspondent of the Times at Vienna says that the baccarat scandal has caused a sensation in army circles on the continent, especially in countries where the Prince of Wales holds honorary military rank. The correspondent directs attention to the fact that an Australian general, who was found to have condoned in a similar manner to that adopted by the Prince of Wales' sets of cheating upon the part of one of his subordinate officers, was compelled to resign from the army to avoid being tried by court martial.

The liberal radical society of Scotland has forwarded to the Prince of Wales a resolution, adopted by the society, condoning his action with the baccarat case, and demanding that he resign his army commission.

PARIS, May 11.—LeNational announces that M. DeLesseps will be legally prosecuted for having misled the French investors in the Panama canal project.

KILLED BY ELECTRICITY.

William Payne Meets Death on an Electric Car.

NEW ALBANY, June 11.—William Payne, a lineman in the employ of the Highland railway, an electric road up the knobs west of this city, was instantly killed by an electric shock last evening. Payne was engaged in making a connection between the main trolly wire and a branch wire to be used to propel cars to the campmeeting grounds. He was kneeling on top of a car while placing a bolt in position, and slipped off the board on which he was kneeling, falling across both wires. His brother, who was working in five feet of him, saw the accident, but the unfortunate man was dead before he could be reached. One of the wires struck him on the neck and the other one on the side and burned into the flesh like hot irons. Payne was twenty-four years old, unmarried and lived at Nashville, Tenn. He had been in the employ of the company for six months. The estimated strength of the current is said to be only four hundred volts.

A CHURCH AFFAIR.

Brethren Quarrel Over Possession and Have Each Other Arrested.

WABASH, June 11.—For some time there has been trouble in the Fairview United Brethren church, in this county, which culminated yesterday in a legal action. Last Sunday one faction of the congregation broke into the house of worship and held services, and yesterday the trustees of the church appeared in the circuit court and asked for an injunction enjoining the other faction from using the church property. The injunction was granted. As there are many wealthy and influential men in both factions, it is likely that the troubles will be settled only after a long and stubborn fight. The parties sued are Charles Potter, of Elkhart county; Albert Johnston, of Huntington county, and Frank Bailey, Henry Walters and Hiram and Ben Basore, of Wabash county.

Senator Perry M. Adams, one of the attorneys of Marvin Kuhns, the desperado, writes a SENTINEL reporter that the trial of his client will commence at Tiffin on the 22nd inst.

Judge Olds, of the Indiana Supreme court, holds that under the statute, previous to the amendment of 1889, a childless second wife takes a fee simple, and at her death the children of the husband by a former marriage becomes her forced heirs; and quit claim deeds of such children do not stop them from recovering the land after the death of the widow.

Yesterday afternoon Marshal Franke raided the houses at 51 and 58 Hamilton [illegible] Henry Row." Mattie Smith, Annie Cole and E. D. Smith were placed under arrest. At the police headquarters they pleaded for the clemency of the mayor. They stated that the officers had been so severe on them recently that they were almost penniless. They entered a plea of guilty to the charge of keeping houses of prostitution and said that if the jail sentence was suspended they would sell their household effects and leave the city at once. Last night, Annie Cole, the young lady who attempted to commit suicide, and Elida Smith, purchased tickets for Columbia City. Mattie Stewart is making preparations to go to Plainfield, Ind.

In a decision rendered yesterday the supreme court says: "The power of a city to assess for street improvements to a distance of 150 feet from line of the improvement can only be exercised when there is a tract of unplatted land extending back that distance. The fact that it may be sub divided does not deprive the council of the power to assess for that distance and the statute expressly provides for such a case. But if the unplatted tract extends back less than 150 feet, and then abuts, in turn, upon another street, or upon the block of platted lots, the statute gives no authority to extend the limit of the assessment beyond such unplatted tract."

Considerable excitement was created at noon, at the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets, by the attempt of Sheriff Viberg to arrest a young fellow named Gossert, who was wanted for brutally beating Mr. Wiegend several days ago. Two other fellows, Yorke and Orance, were engaged in the affair, but they had been arrested and fined. The officers have since been looking for Gossert. The sheriff espied him at noon riding down street in a buggy with two others and at once endeavored to arrest him. Gossert jumped out of the buggy and ran. Sheriff Viberg gave chase and, with Officer Daesler, arrested his man a few squares away. He was taken to the police station.

THE KEYSTONE TROUBLE.

Comptroller Lacey Completes His Statement of the Affair.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Comptroller Lacey completed his statement of the connection of his office with the closing of the Keystone National bank, of Philadelphia, today and handed it to Secretary Foster for his information. The statement is very elaborate and contains all the correspondence that has passed between Comptroller Lacey and Examiner Drew. Mr. Lacy takes the ground that the office of comptroller of the currency can only be investigated by congress or by United States officials and that it would be manifestly improper that its business should be subject to inspection by any municipality that desired to inspect it. He cites as a precedent the refusal of Superintendent Porter, who refused to turn over certain census returns at the request of New York authorities, which refusal was based on the opinion of the attorney general that United States government officials should not obey the request of municipal authorities. Comptroller Lacey will, in all probability, acting on this opinion, refuse to appear before the Philadelphia council, though his statement may be forwarded to it by Secretary Foster for its "information."

BISHOP KNIGHT.

No names have as yet been proposed, although Dean Williams, of the Cathedral, is talked of.

STRUCK GAS!

The Town of Ossian in a State of Great Excitement.

At 8 o'clock last night the Ossian gas well was shot a second time, and the result has thrown the town into a furore of excitement. It compares favorably with the biggest wells in the state. When shot, the gas leaped into the air thirty feet. There was in attendance some of the best informed gas men in the state who pronounced it one of the most valuable wells in Indiana. It will be put under control at once.

OSSIAN, Ind., June 11.

THE STATE ENCAMPMENT

To Be Held Here Provided Water and Other Things Are Furnished—Remarkable Benefits to the City.

The state military encampment will be held in this city one week, commencing July 20, provided Fort Wayne will furnish the grounds, water supply, fuel, bedding, etc. Between 2,000 and 2,500 men will go into camp, including the infantry, cavalry and artillery. The governor and his entire staff will be here to review the troops and on this day alone should attract 30,000 strangers to the city. Excursion rates will be named by all the railroads entering here.

Yesterday a letter was received from General Ruckle saying that Fort Wayne had been named as the place for the next encampment of the state troops provided her citizens would furnish grounds, water supply, fuel, bedding, etc. Immediately on receipt of this letter a conference was held at the city hall between the mayor, the president and vice-president of the Business Men's exchange and the resident members of the governor's staff and the situation was carefully canvassed. The estimates of the probable expense of supplying these requirements was made and it was found that fully $1,000 would be required to secure the encampment. To effect this it is estimated that the state will have to expend upwards of $20,000 for meats, bread, vegetables, horses, feed and general camp supplies. In addition to this the 2,000 or more men encamped here for one week would not fall short of leaving here from $10,000 to $15,000, and the attraction here of many strangers could scarcely help of benefitting our city in a sum amounting to fully $55,000 to $60,000. With these figures in view this committee decided to go ahead with this undertaking and the following finance committee was appointed: O. R. Higgins, chairman; Mayor C. A. Zollinger, treasurer; Dennis Monahan, A. J. Friend, C. D. Tillo and F. C. Boltz, committee on finance.

This committee will be obliged to start out at once to solicit the necessary funds from our citizens, as we have only until June 18 in which to notify General Ruckles of our acceptance of his proposition, and the committee have decided that they will only feel warranted to so accept provided the funds are raised. Other cities of our state stand ready to accept in the event that Fort Wayne should decline. All the supplies bought by the state are advertised, and bids are asked, and the city wherein the encampment is held furnishes the supplies. Of course the lowest bidder is favored, but in order to furnish 1,500 loaves of bread three times a day, which will be required, will tax the combined product of all our bakeries. Meats, vegetables, hay, etc., in proportion, will doubtless give all of our dealers in these supplies all they can do to furnish them. Last year, when the encampment was held at South Bend, the dealers found it impossible to supply the wants of the state and Chicago and other cities were drawn upon to help out. When this committee calls upon our citizens it is hoped that they will be met promptly by liberal subscriptions, as the time is short in which to act.

SENSATIONAL KIDNAPPING.

John Cort Drives His Wife Away and Secrets His Children.

TACOMA, Wash., June 11.—A sensational kidnapping case was brought to light yesterday in the application of Mary Louise Siverance for a writ of habeas corpus to compel John Cort, the theatrical manager of Seattle and Portland, to produce her children in court. It seems from her complaint, that John Lindsley, while under the alias of John Cort, seduced her seven years ago under promise of marriage. She afterwards learned that he had a wife living and could not marry her. She continued to live with him as his wife, and he came to Seattle. Two children were born to her and she and Cort were supposed to be married. Last Monday evening, about 8 o'clock, the children disappeared. When Mary started to seek them he closed the door on her and in angry tones told her she would never see them again. Then he drove her out into the street. The cause of his strange conduct is supposed to be a desire to get rid of this woman and take another in her place. Cort claims to have married his wife in Minneapolis and will file a suit for divorce, charging infidelity.

THE OMNIBUS STRIKE.

The Road Car Company Refuses to Pay the Scale Demanded.

LONDON, June 11.—The strike of the omnibus drivers and conductors continues. The Road Car company announce that its vehicles are not running because the company cannot afford to pay the few men who remained loyal. These men must, therefore, share the sufferings of the strikers, while it is possible that the latter may decline to share their strike funds with the "loyalists."

The Road Car company declare that if it grants higher wages, it would be compelled to suspend operations altogether. The general situation remains unchanged.

BIBLE STUDY Prof. Clippinger's Class at City Y. M. C. A.

THE hot days are here and the thermometer becomes an interesting study.

IT IS now admitted in all quarters that Senator Abbott is to be the future premier of Canada. He will be sent for by Lord Stanley tomorrow. The composition of the new cabinet will be exactly the same as the other.

GOVERNOR HOVEY has issued his proclamation declaring the laws passed by the legislature to be in force, but made a special exception of the apportionment bill, claiming that this act was never presented for his approval.

IT IS estimated that at least $50,000,000 of the government's paper money supposed to be in circulation has been either lost or destroyed. By the sinking of one vessel off the Atlantic coast some years ago $1,000,000 in greenbacks was lost.

THE sultan has issued a decree prohibiting the ladies of Constantinople from perambulating the streets in the Paris costumes they have adopted of late, which his majesty condemns as departing from Turkish tradition and from the precepts of the koran.

THE last census of Ireland shows that Roman catholics number 3,549,745, a decrease of 411,146 during the last decade; Protestant Episcopals, 600,810, a decrease of 38,744; Presbyterians, 446,637, a decrease of 24,047, and the Methodists, 55,235, an increase of 6,396.

FIVE years ago a St. Louis girl was caught by her mother being kissed by a painter, at work on the house. The old lady rushed out and pulled the girl into the house. That was the last any one saw of the girl. Since then her room is locked and the shutters tied and no one sees her.

MRS. ELIZABETH L. HARRISON, widow of the president's brother, Archibald I. Harrison, drew a pension last week amounting to $8,820.83. The claim had been twice disallowed, once under Arthur's, and later under Cleveland's administration. With hopeful persistence the claim was again presented, with the results above given.

A WASHINGTON special says it is reported that President Harrison has decided to send ex-Governor and ex-Senator Gilbert A. Pierce, of North Dakota, as our representative to China. Mr. Pierce is now an editorial writer on the Minneapolis Tribune. The appointment of Governor Pierce will probably be followed by the appointment of ex-Senator Blair as minister to Japan.

THE Indiana State Medical society is one of the oldest and most substantial and conservative of professional organized bodies in Indiana. It has a membership of about twelve hundred, nearly or quite one half of the practicing physicians of the state. Yesterday this society began its forty-second annual convention at Indianapolis. A number of interesting papers are on the program, among which was one read yesterday afternoon by Dr. T. J. Dills, of this city, on "Foreign Bodies Lodged Within the Eye."

THE famously-drilled division of Kokomo has been restored to full membership in the Uniform rank, K. of P. During the world's tourney at Cincinnati, in 1888, under the auspices of the supreme lodge, the division was given second place in the prize-drill, although it was claimed that it excelled all competitors. A protest was filed against the alleged defective scoring of the judges, but, although the petition was respectfully worded, the division was held guilty of unknightly conduct, and its officers were ordered to apologize within thirty days or stand suspended. Subsequently it was reinstated, and the officers were ordered to appear before court martial. The new supreme chancellor, however, holds that the reinstatement of the division was not as individuals, but as a body, and that the court martial is barred by statute of limitations. This rule is accepted by the Kokomo division, which has yielded none of its claims relative to the Cincinnati award.

WHAT MEAT WE DO EAT!

The People of This City Eat 124,100 Animals Every Year and Spend Over $6,272,125 For Meat Stuff.

"How much meat do the people of Fort Wayne eat in a day," was the off-hand question put by a SENTINEL reporter last evening to Chas. W. Weller, the proprietor of the West Jefferson street meat market.

"That would be a sort of difficult question for me to answer," was the reply.

"You could give a pretty good guess?"

"Yes, I might do that."

"Try it. You have been engaged in the butcher business here in Fort Wayne for a number of years. Give me your best judgment in the matter."

"Well, I suppose that our 40,000 people use forty head of cattle every day. Putting the retail price of the beef sold from them at $40 each, it would make the money paid out by people of this city every day for beef amount to $1,600. Then there would be fifty calves at $8 each, making $400; two hundred hogs, sold in the form of smoked and fresh meat, at $20 each, making $4,000, and fifty lambs and sheep, which would average in the selling at $4 50 each, making $225. This, I should judge, was a pretty fair off-hand estimate of the amount of meat eaten and the money paid by the people of this city every day for meat. It would amount to, let's see—" said he, looking at the reporter's note book, as the newspaper man went through with his multiplication and addition process, "$6,225! Pretty big pile of money for meat every day, isn't it? That has to be divided among fifty of us butchers—big and little—for there are that number in Fort Wayne."

Taking Mr. Weller's figures as a fair estimate, $6,225 every day, would make the amount of money paid for meat in this city during the year run up into the startling figures, $2,272,125. So that the people of Fort Wayne eat up, in the shape of meat, more than the wealth of two millionaires every year; or, calculating according to the number of animals eaten, they put down into their stomachs 14,600 cattle, 18,260 calves, 73,000 hogs and 18,250 lambs and sheep, or 124,100 animals in all. The population of the city is 40,000, and the above calculation would make every man, woman and child in Fort Wayne eat a little over three of these animals every year. If there are any of our readers who think they don't get his or her share, they can make up their minds that somebody else gets more than their share. Your share, dear reader, is 3 1 10 animals. See that you get it, or its equivalent in money, paid over the butcher's counter, 357 a year.

FAMILY REUNION

Attended at Angola by Residents of This City.

In giving an account of the Haswell and Mathews families reunion near Angola last Thursday, which Mrs. O. N. Merry and Messrs. W. C. and G. L. Haswell, of this city, attended, the Angola Herald, says: "There were 150 guests present. The meeting was called to order and G. L. Haswell, of Fort Wayne, elected president and O. P. Learned secretary. The president was escorted to his chair, it being the old family chair which was made by his father about sixty years ago, in front of which rested the Bible which had been in the family one hundred years. The president on taking the gavel found it to be the mortor that his mother used for pounding coffee sixty three years ago. The president made some very appropriate remarks, showing the difference in the times when we used the sickle and the binder.

"The program consisted of short addresses by friends and an oration by Dine Mathews, of Lucas county, Ohio, which was very appropriate, after which he presented the log cabin to Aunt Rascela Haswell, mother of the president, G. L. Haswell, and now living with Thomas and Mary Leason. The cabin represented the pioneer days; there was the puncheon floor, the shake roof, the old well sweep, and the old oaken bucket, which brings back to our minds the scenes of our childhood and the fond recollections that present them to view. How many eyes were wet with tears when they thought of the old times when Aunt Rascela came to this place and had to go forty miles to mill. Her bedstead consisted of a couple of holes bored in the wall and pins drove in with posts for the front side and a chest for a table."

Col. R. W. Thompson, of Terre Haute, yesterday celebrated his eighty-second birthday, and Senator Voorhees, Col. Tom Nelson and other old friends joined in making the event memorable.

W. P. March, of Winamac, son of the clerk of Pulaski county, is accused of forging his father's name to notes aggregating $200, and with being a fugitive. Once before it is alleged that he forged his father's name for $500, but his sire lifted the obligation. The main losers in the present venture are the bank of Winamac and the Citizens' bank, same city. Young March was married less than one year ago.

Details of the terrible shooting affair in Posey county, which resulted in the killing of James Mitchell and the dangerous injury of Marion Townsend, show that some weeks ago, while Mitchell and his wife were fishing in a bayou, Marion and Mark Townsend, with others, ordered them to leave, as they proposed seining the bayou. Mitchell refused to go and the party disrobed in the presence of Mrs. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell thereupon prosecuted them for public indecency, and the Townsends were fined. On the night of the killing the Townsends went to Mitchell's house and opened fire with Winchester rifles, and Mitchell replied with his shotgun, loaded with buckshot. The Townsends were arrested and released on bail.

Many of the party will be uniformed.

"JOE AND THE PICKEREL."

Or, "The Telegrapher's Adventures on Sylvan Lake."—Local and Personal News.

Joe Schwerzgen, secretary of the Telegraphers' association and a professional fisherman, but he will indulge occasionally in the piscatorial art when the opportunity offers, as it did yesterday at Rome City. A SENTINEL reporter noticed a mysterious tin box protruding from Mr. Schwerzgen's pocket as he boarded the excursion train yesterday morning, and inquiry revealed the fact that the box contained fish-worms, the result of a half hour's violent exertion in the garden at the rear of Schwerzgen's domicile Tuesday evening. Joe had been in consultation with Geo. Richards, a man who knows a thing or two about fishing, and acting upon the advice of his friend, he had soaked the fish-worms over night in Duffy's pure malt whisky, not forgetting to save a little of the beverage for any emergency which might arise while at Rome City. As soon as the train stopped at the depot, Mr. Schwerzgen rushed over to the lake and secured a boat and some fishing tackle. He then went up the lake about two miles, anchored his boat and prepared to snoop in the fish. The water was clear and he could see his bait as it hung temptingly beneath the surface. Presently a large pickerel come along and eyed the morsel suspiciously. After swimming in a circle about the bait once or twice the fish went up to it and Joe at once commenced to "clear the deck" for action. He supposed the pickerel would take that bait, hook and all, at one gulp, but it didn't. No; that fish had been there before. He just licked that bait clear around and then swam away. Joe put on some fresh bait and tried it again, but the pickerel only went through the same licking process. Again and again did Joe tempt that fish, but to no avail. By the time he had repeated the dose a dozen times that pickerel was tearing around in the water like a maniac, and when he came up to the bait his gait was unsteady and his course crooked. At last the bait was all gone and the pickerel got mad and made things "hum." He stuck his head out of the water and made faces at Joe. The more the fish thought over the matter the madder he got until bye and bye he began to lose his reason. Joe was puzzled. He had caught fish before, but never had such an experience. The fish began to show a belligerant disposition. He steadied himself for an instant and then shot up like a flash, striking Joe in the face with his tail and came near upsetting the boat. Before Joe could recover from his astonishment the pickerel gave him another whack alongside the head. This was enough for Joe. He immediately cut his anchor and set out for the landing, pursued by the enraged pickerel, but he landed safely and will not fish any more in those waters.

This is the story as told by one of the excursionists. We do not vouch for it, but the fact that Mr. Schwerzgen returned home with no fish may be taken as proof of its truthfulness.

C. Brower, the fireman who was injured at the works of the Fort Wayne Furniture company two months ago, has returned to work, having recovered from the injuries.

Angola Herald: "The Wabash extension through the south part of the county is a 'sure go.' The company is now paying for the right-of-way contracted for last fall."

Louis Gross has resigned his position with the Fort Wayne Furniture company to accept a similar one with the Furniture company at Van Wert, Ohio. He is a cabinetmaker.

Everything points to an unparalleled business activity in railroad circles, as soon as the wheat harvest is over. There never were better prospects for a heavy yield than at the present.

The following Pittsburg trainmen laid off yesterday to attend the excursion: Engineers J. Shelley, W. Lohrman, C. Darnell and W. Beck, and Firemen C. Welsh and A. J. Kohler.

The Angola Herald says that the Lake Shore company is about to commence the erection of an immence grain elevator at Angola. The elevator will be provided with all the modern improvements.

The first regular meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Indianapolis, Logansport and Chicago railroad was held at Logansport yesterday. It was decided to push the work of construction at once.

Herman Thiele, a hammersmith, and Charles Lindemeyer, a moulder, both of the Bass works, are attending the wedding, today, of the latter's sister, Miss Sophia Lindemeyer, to John Smith, a stonecutter.

Representatives of Baltimore and Philadelphia grain houses are in the west already, contracting for new wheat, to be shipped as soon as harvested, which in some parts of the country will be in about two weeks.

The Goshen News thinks there is little if any doubt that the Lake Shore company will build from Fayette, Ohio, through Angola and LaGrange to Goshen, providing the people along the line extend reasonable encouragement.

The Van Wert Daily Bulletin says: "Today the county commissioners accepted the proposition of C. D. Law and will grant a perpetual lease to the Pennsylvania railroad company of fifty-five feet off the court house lot for a deed for suitable property on which to erect jail building. This means a new depot as well as a new jail."

June 11, 1870, the first regular passenger train made its initial trip over the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, consequently today that popular line has attained its majority, and may also add to its name "a man." This railroad, under its efficient management, from the heads of departments to local agents, has made rapid and steady progress to an eminent position in the railroad world, and it has attained an eminence which is known as phenominal. It is now not only the longest but most profitable north and south line in the United States as well.

WILL WRITE A BOOK.

Sir Gordon Cumming Will Have an Interesting Volume.

New York, June 11.—Sir William Gordon Cumming has decided, says a letter from an acquaintance of the baronet in London to a gentleman in this city, to relate at length his own version of the Tracby Croft baccarat scandal in a small volume, which he proposes to bring out at a very early date. In his book he will deal particularly with what he has termed the "rascality" of Lidgit Green; the manner in which the Prince of Wales keeps secrets; his candid opinion of the hostess of Tranby Croft; the true and only reason why he was called upon to sign "that document;" how the Prince of Wales plays the role of banker; why he carries his own baccarat apparatus about with him; the noise now that occurred among the party on both nights of the play; and last, but not least, Lady Brooke's reason for breaking her promise to the Prince of Wales that she would not utter a single word about the affair to a living being.

A BIG THIEF.

He Stole Over $30,000 From His Firm.

New York, June 11.—William H. Forrest, bookkeeper in the office of the Churchman, pleaded guilty to forgery yesterday and was sent to the Elmira reformatory. It is thought that the young man stole more than $30,000 from the firm. Hundmits having taken $10,000. His stealings have been going on for eighteen months. The young man probably made more money than his employers last year, though his salary was but $14 per week.

Important Trade Name Decision.

Judge Thayer, of the United States Circuit court at St. Louis, has recently handed down an opinion, and granted a perpetual injunction against the defendants in the case of the Hostetter Company against the Druggists' Publishing Co., restraining the defendants from publishing, manufacturing or selling of any article of stomach Bitters other than bulk, by the gallon or otherwise, or in any way making use of the name "Hostetter's" except in connection with the sale of genuine Bitters which are always sold in bottles securely sealed, and also prohibiting the sale of any Bitters in bulk though the name of "Hostetter's" be not used, but the suggestion made to the purchaser that he can put them in the empty Hostetter bottles, and perhaps never would find discover the difference. His decision supports the Hostetter Company in the exclusive use of the name "Hostetter" in connection with either the manufacture or sale of stomach bitters in any manner or form whatsoever, and finally establishes its ownership in the name "Hostetter" as a "TRADE NAME."

which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla will build up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purify the blood, and assist to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

ON HIS BICYCLE

L. J. Black Wants to Circle the Globe—He Talks.

L. J. Black, a young man whose home is at Cleveland, Ohio, was registered at the Aldine hotel to-day. Mr. Black has started to accomplish the remarkable task of girdling the globe on his bicycle. This ambitious would-be emulator of Stevens is the son of a Cleveland banker, but wealth does not seem to be any barrier to his daring and dangerous undertaking. The young man is a fine, athletic looking fellow, rather reserved in manners and does not seem anxious to tell everybody he meets that he is on a long and perilous journey that may take from now until 1893. He weighs 135 pounds. The bicycle which he rides is an American Champion, which he will discard for a new one upon reaching the Pacific coast. On his bicycle is an attachment which holds his baggage, which consists of a small waterproof tent and a few other necessities. While explaining his trip this venturesome wheelman said:

"I started from Cleveland June 2. I do not intend to beat time but will travel for the adventure and pleasure there is in it. I expect to meet with many trials before I accomplish the end I seek, but I am ready to meet them, I guess. The towns I stop at are all chosen and my route is fixed."

Here he exhibited a carefully calculated list which showed that the proposed route lies through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, California, Japan, China, India, Persia, Asia Minor, Servia, Bulgaria, Turkey, Hungary, Germany, France, England. Two friends that will accompany Mr. Black are a brace of revolvers, which will perhaps come into play more than once, as he will spend many a night with nothing between him and the canopy of heaven but his thin tent covering. It remains to be seen whether the adventuresome young wheelman will change his mind by the time he reaches the shores of the Golden state.

WITH RENEWED VIGOR.

The Northwestern League Now Solid Than Ever.

At the meeting of the Northwestern league directors held in Chicago the delegates voted unanimously to play out the season, guaranteeing that their several towns would play the season through. The meeting was held in the parlors of the Palmer house and lasted form noon on Tuesday till nearly daylight on Wednesday. The great business of the meeting was the adoption of a new schedule. Much trouble was experienced in making up a six-club schedule, but after nearly ten hours of work the committee made a report which was satisfactory to all the clubs. There are few off days in the new arrangement, it being deemed advisable to make longer jumps rather than lay off a day very frequently.

Each club gets seven Sundays, Sunday games being played in all towns. The schedule calls for ninety games. Evansville travels the least number of miles, about 3,900; Grand Rapids 4,300, and other clubs from 4,100 to 5,100. Each club plays forty-five games at home, three series of three games with each club. Fort Wayne will have no game July 4. President Meyer, of the Fort Wayne club, told a SENTINEL reporter today that no changers were made in the guarantee, as stated.

THE STANDING.

Below will be found the standing of clubs in the Northwestern league, including games played Monday:

BITTEN BY A CAT.

Mrs. Thomas Maugen, of Brandriff Street, in Great Agony.

Yesterday a cat was caught in a steel trap on the premises of Mrs. Thomas Maugen, of Brandriff street, and Mrs. Maugen, in her efforts to release the feline, was badly bitten on the right hand. She did not consider the wound of much importance but it continued to swell until the hand was twice its natural size. Dr. William Enslen, who was summoned, found the woman in awful agony and as her condition did not improve over night grave apprehension is felt for the result. Unless Mrs. Maugen gets better by sun down a consultation of physicians will probably be held to render all the aid within the power of medical skill. A cat bite has been known to produce hydrophobia.

DIED FROM SNAKE POISON.

A Copperhead Attacks and Kills a Teamster.

BROWNSTOWN, Ind., June 11.—Joseph Cummings, of Houston, in the western part of this county, while loading tan-bark yesterday evening, was bitten by a large copperhead snake. No physician was near, so a tight bandage was tied over the wrist above the bite and plenty of whisky given him. It seems as though the bandage was too tight, and not being removed, the poison remained in the hand, which became thoroughly inoculated. Upon removing the bandage the venom flew to all parts of the system and the sufferer died in great agony this morning. The deceased was a brother of Dr. H. J. Cummings, secretary of the county board of health, and was a highly respected citizen.

Maryland Democrats

BALTIMORE, Md., May 11.—The Democratic state central committee met at the Carrollton hotel at noon today and selected July 30 as a date of the state convention, which will be held in Baltimore.

Gaff traveled along the company's lines, but made his headquarters in this city. He was a young man, unmarried, and had numerous friends in this city. Mr. Gaff's parents, who live at Dunfee, on the Nickel Plate, not far from this city, have been summoned to the young man's bedside.

Battery Team Withdrawn.

The Battery team has withdrawn from the City league on account of the shortage of ball players. Another club to be known as the Standards put in their application and the same will probably be accepted and will take the place of the outgoing club.

The directors of the city league met last evening to talk over the matter of protesting one of the recent games between the Battery and the R. & F.'s. After thoroughly investigating the matter they concluded to let the game stand as was decided at the time it was played.
